INITIAL CALL TO PARTICIPANTS

Your class is scheduled and participants are registered. Contact each participant and gather pertinent information to move forward with a virtual workshop.

General information to collect

- First and last name
- Address
- Phone number (you already have it!)
- Email address—it is very important to get the correct email address so that you will be able to email pertinent class information as described below

Points to discuss with, ask of participants on the initial call

- Share/clarify information about the workshop
- Ask participants the following questions to help with technical assistance:
 - What type of technology will you use to access the virtual workshop i.e. computer, tablet or smartphone
 - Do you have internet access
 - Do you have sufficient bandwidth support
 - Have you ever used a video/virtual platform such as Zoom, Skype, etc.
- Inform participants that the technical assistant (TA) will contact them before the start of the workshop to:
 - Ensure they can access the virtual workshop platform
 - Practice using platform functions
- Tell participants they will receive a reminder email the day before the workshop begins with the following:
 - Link to virtual workshop
 - Days, dates and time of workshop
 - Instructions to access a virtual workshop platform (if needed /requested)
- If you do not have a technical assistant, provide the participants with your information to call you if they are having difficulty accessing Zoom.

Subject: Thank you for participating in the workshop!

Greetings,

You did it! Congratulations and thank you for participating in the Bingocize virtual workshop! I have enjoyed spending these past weeks with you by computer, tablet and smartphone; we hope that you, too, have enjoyed this new way of meeting. I also hope that the time you have spent with me has increased your confidence in preventing falls and physical activities. We ask that you please take the time to complete and submit the post workshop survey as your feedback is very important to me. Simply click on the link below to access the form. Don't forget to include the Workshop ID!
